

Goin' Places, Cut-Off Jeans Girl

I see you with your Daisy Dukes on and I thought to myself you are the one I wish I had the balls to say something to you but instead I said nothing at all

You took a pair of scissors and cut your best jeans
By the way you looked I'd say you're in your late teens Must girls won't dare to wear those really short shorts but you don't seem to mind at all

I wish you were mine
Will you be mine
You're looking fine
All of the time

You're just a Cut-Off Jeans Girl
