

Gojira, Esoteric Surgery

You have the power to heal yourself

All illness can be healed
the cell regenerates
disambiguated situation
There is a secret code
in the structure of the mind
You have the power to heal yourself

Flesh bodies mute and blinded roaming uncertain, lost infected misinformed Releasing a black enormous insect out from the chest archaic form disease

Esoteric surgery a dissection of the soul Unsuspected precise power on the wounded astral body projected beam of light

the cell regenerates
disambiguated situation
You have the power to heal yourself

Suspended floating in empty spaces Descending swift like a fire running down Obstruction disintegration life force overcoming all circumstances Release the pain
