

Gojira, Love

Last night, alone, I met the moon
I saw its halo and the love around
"Now take the path, don't ever lose your time Just watch the light you have inside"

I watched inside and my eyes burned
The moon was right
The roots so deep, and the head so high
I want to be in and watch it out

I know the reasons why I failed
The stars illuminate my being Behold thy servant, you the force around that makes the planets be
