

Gold City Quartet, I'm Losing My Mind

Intro

Since the old man died, I'm happy to find, I'm losing my mind

Verse

I was runnin' into walls, wondering where I went wrong
Headed for a fall, and flirtin' with the world too long
When love turned the tide, what was wrong has now turned out right
Everything is changed around
Things are looking different now

Chorus

I'm losin' my mind, putting on the mind of Christ
I'm out of control, lettin' Jesus run my life
I'm goin' crazy, head over heels in love with Him
Since the old man died, I'm happy to find, I'm losin' my mind

Verse

My head is in the clouds, thinkin' 'bout things above
But my feet are on the ground, walkin' in the Father's love
When I don't understand, I surrender to the Master's plan
My thinking has been re-arranged
I'm a receiver of the great exchange
