

Golden Earring, Jane Jane

From the Album:

* The hole

She weighs her words on a silver tongue
While she cradles the phone
Moves through the room
I can hear her lightin' a cigarette
But so far she said nothin' yet
Oh - they say that your love is poison
I think that it's just uncommon
Jane Jane
There's a dark side to you that turns me on
I wish I knew where it's commin' from
You're like a spanish dancer on a T.V. set
You hide a rattlesnake under your dress
They say that your love is poison
I say that it's just uncommon
Jane Jane Jane - don't make the same mistake again
Jane Jane - don't break the chain
That ties you to my heart
Jane Jane Jane listen babe
It's not a game anymore
I'm gonna throw myself in a wishing well
I'm gonna go spindizzy on a carrousel
Gonna gonna gonna drown myself in the pourin' rain
And wash up on some far away shore again
They say that your love is poison
I can't do without it darlin'
Jane Jane Jane - don't make the same mistake again
Jane Jane - don't break the chain
That ties you to my heart
Jane Jane Jane you've gotta listen to me babe Jane Jane
Oh Jane - you've gotta start makin' sense baby Jane
It's not a game it's not a game anymore.....
Don't you know that we've gotta change
Jane Jane
