Golden Earring, Love In Motion

From the Album: * The hole

Oh-oh my love's in motion

Yeah, you've got me on the run

Yeah, yeah, yeah, baby 'cross the ocean

That's where daddy points his gun

The truth comes out

Your lies 're never fast enough

The truth comes out

Like a pain in your sweet little ass dear

Take a ride on a slow train

Take a good look at your memory

Think it all over again

Make a choice & amp; make sure you've decided

Mmm - my love's in motion

You've got me on the run

Yeah, yeah my love's in motion

Everything's upside down

Two fine hearts

They don't cheat, 'cause they're meant to last

Two fine hearts, they bleed when they're torn apart

Do not think I'm a bad boy

Maybe just a little broken toy

I've gotta thank you babe

Before I turn around - turn around

Oh-oh my love's in motion

Yeah, you've got me on the run

Oh-oh baby 'cross the ocean

That's where daddy points his gun

Yeah my love's in motion

Oh, you've got me on the run

Yeah yeah baby 'cross the ocean

That's where daddy points his gun

My love's in motion

Everything's upside down
