Golden Earring, Naked Truth

From the Album:
* The naked truth

Used to be a young gun Out on the hard streets

Getting high on crystal

Drinking scotch and smoking weed

Daddy's wish used to be nothing less than my command

Took a switch to my back nailed me to a cross both hands

Mama couldn't give me

The thing a young boy needs

Instead of mama suffering

She was smart enough to leave

Spend my life fighting trying to stay free

From trials and tribulations and the state penitentiary

Hustled pool really looking cool

Just making both ends meet

Untill that day I saw you walking

Down Blue Angel street

The sweetest lies are lily white coming from your lips

You brush away all my pain with a lazy finger tip hm

It moves my heart just watching

The way you walk so smooth

You save me from an evil fate

You steal away my blues

Lyin' here in your arms

I don't need more proof

Lyin' here safe and warm

It's just the naked truth

This man loves you

This man loves you

This man loves you

This man loves you

That's the naked truth

It's the naked truth

Going down that graveyard spiral

There was nothing I could do

Life treatin' me much harder

Than a mean old corkscrew

Lyin' here in your arms

I don't need more proof

Lyin' here safe and warm It's just the naked truth

This man loves you

This man loves you

This man loves you

This man loves you

It's the

It's the naked truth

It's the naked truth
