

Golden Earring, See See

From the Album:

* Golden Earring

He was the only key
She was the only door
What more could they please
Her eyes are ponds of blue
His wishes all came true
What was there to loose in the midnight
See, see, see, he said
Seagulls screamin' down in the morning sky
Gee, gee, gee, he said
Come on girl, let's leave this world behind
But then, after weeks
The weeks they got weak
Little did they speak about the future
Her eyes still were blue
But thoughts soon got black
Time that he went back to where he came from See, see, see, she said
Broken dreames fill the starless night
Gee, gee, gee, she said and her tears were sparklin' bright in the mornin' light
