

Golden Earring, Who Do You Love

From the Albums:

I walk 47 miles of barbed-wire
Wear a cobra snake for a neck-tie
Got a brand new house built on a hill
Made out a rattle snake hide
It's got a great big chimney way up on the top
Made out of human skulls
So come on over here, cute little thing and tell me, who do you love
A voodoo man, he took me by the hand
He said: woo baby, I can understand
Crushed a bone on a ju-ju
Stone rolled his eyes and he cast a spell
Tell me who do you love (3x), tell me yeah
The light was black and the night was blue
And down the alley I crept on through
A shot of a pistol, somebody screamed
You should'a heard just what I seen
Tell me who do you love
I got a tombstone head and a graveyard mind
I'm just twenty-two and I ain't stole a dime
Got the eyes of a wolf, and a gator smile
I lived long enough, and I don't mind dyin'
Who do you love
