

Golden Earring, You're Better Off Free

From the Album:

* Seven tears

Don't ever look behind you when you get on your way
You better keep on rolling, could be your last day
And if you torture your brains
By thinking how far
Then lean on me and I'll pull down that bar
refrein:

Oh, something gotta hold on me
That's why I'm movin'on so easily, yeah, yeah
Well maybe I'm wearing rags
But I'm on no-ones back
So do give a smile to me
Believe me you're better off free
Don't ever look behind you when you get on your way
You better think about tomorrow
Forget about today
And if you torture your brains
By thinking how far
Then lean on me and I'll pull down that bar
refrein:

Oh, something gotta hold on me
That's why I'm movin'on so easily
Oh maybe I'm wearing rags
But I'm on no-ones back
So do give a smile to me
Believe me you're better off free
Don't ever look behind you when you get on your way
You better keep on rolling, could be your last day
And if you torture yourself
By thinking how far
Then lean on me and I'll pull down that bar
refrein:

Oh, something gotta hold on me
That's why I'm movin'on so easily
Oh maybe I'm wearing rags
But I'm on no-ones back
So do give a smile to me
Believe me you're better off free