

Golden Films, Little, Teeny Thumbelina

Oh, Thumbelina
Smaller than my thumb
You'll save the little people
And the princess you'll become

You're twice as brave as anyone
You're good and true
Little, teeny Thumbelina
I love you

You've got to bring your father
The prince and all his men
To make the valley safe
For the little people once again

So, on with your adventure
Let no one interfere
You'll feel like a giant
When the little people cheer

Oh, Thumbelina
Smaller than my thumb
You'll save the little people
And the princess you'll become

You're twice as brave as anyone
You're good and true
Little, teeny Thumbelina
I love you

You're twice as brave as anyone
You're good and true
Little, teeny Thumbelina
I love you
