

Golden Smog, Won't Be Coming Home

yesterday is just the day before today sat and watched it, watch it slide away yesterday cried, ooh, yesterday cried looking at me through those tiny eyes why did you do it, why did you have to lie yesterday cried, ooh, yesterday cried
all you ever wanted
and all you ever need ... ooh, yesterday cried
my main lines gone a different way I woke up, and it was yesterday
yesterday cried, ooh, yesterday cried times been good, times have been bad when I was with you, you know it made me sad yesterday cried, ooh, yesterday cried
and all you ever need ...
yesterday cried by the shape of things I'm in I'll just watch it slide away yesterday, yesterday, yesterday
