

Goldenscan, Of Our Times (Super8 Remix)

Beautiful colors, they all mix together so fine
Stand hand in hand in the mix, in the mix of our times
Don't be afraid to express yourself in your own way
Talk to me, talk to me, hear me, what more can I say?

Running together forever as we become born,
Someday the difference between us will make us so strong.
Release your soul and the walls will come tumbling down.
Talk to me, talk to me, hear me, what more can I say?

Beautiful colors, they all mix together so fine,
Stand hand in hand in the mix, in the mix of our times.
Don't be afraid to express yourself in your own way.
Talk to me, talk to me, hear me, what more can I say?
