

Goldfinger, 20? Goodbye

Went out today
To try and phone you
I guess you didn't
Recognize my call
The lady on your end
Said you got caller I. D
And I'm feeling sorry
That you've been
Woken up so much
And I'm feeling guilty
Just talk to me
Please talk to me

I hardly know you
Is it too late to even try
I want to know you
Another twenty cent goodbye

I found a pay phone
And it's busted
Another broken hearted fool
But still I pick up the receiver
My lips are touching
Someone's drool
Please make this worth it
You're all I'm thinking of today
I know you're worth it
Just talk to me
Please talk to me

Goodbye
Another twenty cent goodbye
Another twenty cents
