

Goldfinger, I Need To Know

I run away cause I'm scared that you might leave there's nothing wrong but that's not what I believe and tell me it's alright and tell me I'm okay
and tell me that you're staying, staying here tonight

I feel stupid saying words you've heard before the way I feel today is all I know for sure
and if I scare you
I'm only scaring me
I've got so much to say why won't you speak with me I need to know

what you're feeling
do you feel like I do let's talk about everything I wanna share my life with you and tell me that you feel the way I feel with you and tell me that
you love me,
just like i love you

you're in my life
well I want to be sure I'm not wasting time
I've been through this before
