

Goldfinger, Open Your Eyes

Open your eyes
To the millions of lies
That they tell you every day

Open your mind
To the clever disguise
That the advertisements say

How do they know?...
What's good for you

Wake up Wake up Whoa oh
Wake up wake up Whoa oh oh
A shot to the head
They're better off dead
Will you wake up wake up Whoa oh

Destroy all the land
And kill what you can
Just to make the profits rise

They sell you from birth
For all that you're worth
The money spreads like lies

And how do they know?...
What's good for you

Wake up Wake up Whoa oh
Wake up wake up Whoa oh oh
A shot to the head
They're better off dead
Will you wake up wake up Whoa oh

Don't wanna hate you
Don't wanna blame it all on you i'm Out of options
If you don't look I'll force you to
If you don't look I'll force you to
If you don't look I'll force you to

Wake up Wake up Whoa oh
Wake up wake up Whoa oh oh
A shot to the head
Just so you can be fed
Will you wake up wake up Whoa oh

Open your eyes
Open your eyes
wont you open your eyes?
