

Goldfinger, Spank Bank

I never felt as sick as I do now
I never felt so alone
The walls around confine me like a cell
And so I feel like a dirty old man

I gotta break away from Escape away from
Just make my way right out this place
I try to break away from it
Escape away from it
Make way right outta this place

But my feet are stuck
And my half a buck
Is wasted on this machine
And I'm never coming back

To the spank bank of lust
Gay, straight, bi-curious
Just makes me furious
Spank bank of lust
32 Channels
I don't wanna see a
She-male fucking

We'll maybe I do
Just a little bit
