

Gomez, 1000 Times

Nightfall follows the day
You fight with me
Fill me with patience
I was so brave once
You rescued me
Got in my way

A thousand times
Dumbfounded lies
In tidy lines
Let blood flood the town

Thoughts that dwell
On how we fell
That time will tell
A bedside story of

We've heard it before
Unsettled sleep
When will it all stop?
I hear a pin drop
You've answered me
Loud and clear

So know your fate
The time and date
We escalate
We fall on holy ground

Thoughts that dwell
On how we fell
That time will tell
A bedside story of

I'm here
Leave me to wait near
You recognise me
Get in my way, dear
The price to pay, dear
You'll recognise me
I'll be laying

Where your golden light
Where your golden light

A thousand times
In tidy lines
Let blood flood the town

Thoughts that dwell
On how we fell
That time will tell
A bedside story of
