Baby, put your hand up
You wanna be with someone you can't afford to be
Lay your head with me
I'm too lazy to put my hand up
I wanna be somewhere I can't afford to stay, no
Let me drive you away
Go, because lately, we're going through a run of bad luck
She's going crazy, she only thinks the worst about us
I said please, please, please chill out
Ain't exactly easy for me
Or in that case for you
Lay your head with me
Lately, I put my hand up
I had to do something I couldn't afford to do
But it's no longer up to you
It would be lazy, put your hand up
You wanna be somewhere you can't afford to stay now
Let me drive you away
Oh, because lately, been going through a run of bad luck
She's going crazy, she only thinks the worst about us
I said please, please, please chill out
Ain't exactly easy for me
Or in that case for you
When I look back now things have changed
With patience, thought and restraint
I never thought it would go
Lay your head with me
Lay your head with me
Ooh, because lately, been going through a run of bad luck
She's going crazy, she only thinks the worst about us
I said please, please, please chill out
It ain't exactly easy for me
Or in that case for you
When I look back now things have changed
With patience, thought and restraint
I never thought it would go
Lay your head with me x4
