Gomez, Revolutionary Kind

Keep on kicking shit, keep running off the rails Keep on picking the dirt from 'neath your fingernails 'Cause I'm not worried about your state of mind 'Cause you're not the revolutionary kind

Keep on in the jungle with your techno-cality Keep on lapping up your chemical duty-free 'Cause I'm not worried about your state of mind 'Cause you're not the revolutionary kind

Keep on twisting turning, staring down the sun Keep on dancing dancing, dance with everyone You're not the revolutionary kind You're not the revolutionary kind You're not the revolutionary kind You're not the revolutionary kind
