

Goo Goo Dolls, Day After Day

What if it all ends today
Who to call and what to say
And would it matter anyway?

Navigate between the lies
All confusion multiplies
So many wasted nights
And when the sun begins to rise
Are we too late to realize?

All the same, day after day
The more you scream, the less you say
The conversation's getting stranger
Someone get me out of this place
Hey, hey, hey, oh, oh, oh-oh

All the fears came out tonight
Drew the lines in black and white
All the fiction's true, they said
It's getting hard to get out of my head

All the same, day after day
The more you scream, the less you say
The conversation's getting stranger
Someone get me out of this place
Hey, hey, hey, oh, oh, oh-oh
Hey, hey, hey, oh, oh, oh-oh

Get me numb, I feel too much
Someone come and pick me up
Help me, am I losing touch?
Someone get me out of this place

All the same, day after day (All the same, day after day)
The more you scream, the less you say (The more you scream, the less you say)
The conversation's getting stranger
Someone get me out of this place

Hey, hey, hey, oh, oh, oh-oh
Someone get me out of this place
Hey, hey, hey, oh, oh, oh-oh
The more you scream, the less you say
Someone get me out of this place
