

Good Charlotte, Walk Away (Maybe)

I made this bed
I choose to lie in it
And live with my regrets
And sleep with what I said
Could this be the end
Am I standing on the edge
Of everything I wanted now

But i was afraid
I was afraid

Well maybe I'm just scared
To face the things I feel
It's easier to walk away from everything

Separate my soul
With all the things we shared
I'm falling to pieces now
Say a prayer for me (say a prayer for me)
When you go to bed ('cause)
I'm in need of your faith now

I was afraid

Well maybe I'm just scared
To face the things I feel
It's easier to walk away from everything
If we could just re-sell
And live in happiness
Instead of our regrets
We'd salvage everything
We don't have to walk away

Pray for me now
I'm in need of faith
Pray for me now
I'm in need

And maybe I'm just scared
To face the things I feel
It's easier to walk away from everything
If we could just re-sell
And live in happiness
Instead of our regrets
We'd salvage everything

And maybe I'm just scared
To face the things I feel
It's easier to walk away from everything
Walk away from everything
Walk away from everything
