

Good Riddance, All Fall Down

give me sensibilities without ambition give me accolades i've done nothing to collect then you spread your plague of ignorance across the planet earth robbing us of tons of self respect

it's a plan these are ways to a person we all fall down

unless we rise as one and resist the right!

when we cease to question war as entertainment and christian battle hymns will keep us pacified you can tie a yellow ribbon 'round your cock boy you're just along for the ride

unless we rise as one and resist the right!

Yeah we all fall down!
we all fall down!
we all fall down!
we all fall down!

we all fall down
we all fall down
we all fall down!

let the highbrow poxy liberals all fall down the harbingers of eden all fall down the corporate rock religion all falls down the liar in the office he falls down

to a person we all fall down

to a person we all fall down unless we rise as one and resist the...
resist the right!
