

Good Riddance, Sacrifice

I'd set myself on fire
I'd sacrifice desire it will be great don't get me wrong we can forget it won't be long

Chorus:

I can't hold myself tear this heart away just a moment then it's gone insignificant

Contrary to suggestion
I've answered way too many questions
I feel that chill run down my back all systems go I can't relax

Chorus

I'd set myself on fire
