

Good Riddance, Start At Zero

In the freezing rain
Waiting on the last train
This is how we live
How we fall in love
Last time that we spoke
The room was full of smoke
I watched the clock
And watched you walk away

Time's fade
Until there's nothing to remember
Just empty promises we made
When words fade
Memories lose their meaning
Until it all fades...

We are vain
We are full of fear
We cling to our possessions
For another year
Blame takes those we love
Leaving only one terrified we bar the gates
And load our shiny guns

Time's fade
Until there's nothing to remember
Just empty promises we made
When words fade
Memories lose their meaning
Until it all fades...

Feels like I'm running out of days
There's something inside me
I don't want the world to see
And it feels like it's closing in on me
The whole wide world is closing in

Time's fade
Until there's nothing to remember
Just empty promises we made
When words fade
Memories lose their meaning
Until it all fades...
