

Good Riddance, Trophy

I suppose you did it out of love
I feel that pressure from above
I didn't perform quite up to par
I only gained another scar
I'm not your trophy
I will not shine for you sorry for the disappointment I did the best I could but here I've let the family down again I'm your failure your mistake because I failed to break the tape I'm your shameful progeny your begotten tragedy you ought to know
I'm not for show
