

Good Shoes, Questions & Answers

My questions, your answers
The unfair balance of power
The law in, the hands of the corrupt
And how do I really make a difference?

Watch your mouth, I&#039;ll kick you out
A clear lack of interest
Your questions, my answer is &#039;I need you like I need cancer&#039;

My questions, my answers
Education, a silver spoon
Daddy paid for everything
And I&#039;ve got more talent than you could ever dream of

It&#039;s a sorry state of affairs
When you&#039;re led by an eagle
I&#039;ll be your best friend if you give me the protection that&#039;s needed
I grin from cheek to cheek and lets avoid the real issues
Hire me a bus, you drive me around
I&#039;ll kiss our babies head for the cameras
And do you think the grass will stay green?
And ice won&#039;t melt if we all close our mouths.
