

Goodshirt, How Will I See You there is a forest in your eyes over the trees we'll fly and fly

"how will I see you
how will I see you now?"

all in a floating summers eve I'll be a floating summers breeze

"how will I see you
how will I see you now?"

there is a far away trampoline where I go I bounce back again

"how will I see you
how will I see you now?"
