

Goodshirt, Monotone

changing for the good an evil woman said to break the ice off the morning it's just a thought to make it stick like my mind to that memory the world's not fair so why should I be ... here? it's either something kind of strange or something kind of lazy making me stare

if we won't do it it won't get done caught up in song movie set in monotone laugh a minute cry on home
