

Goon Moon, I Never Heard An Old Woman Cuss

Let you know there on the (?)
Never heard an old woman cuss
Then she drank herself to sleep
Hoping one day we would meet

Where is she now?
Nobody knows
Where is she now?
Nobody knows

Got in a car crash and lost his mind
Head on a windshield stopped the sign
Left on the train tracks for a while
To hear that you suffered makes me smile

Where are you now?
Nobody knows
Where are you now?
Nobody knows

Saw your father die before your eyes
You're dead to me now, but you still alive
Still in love with your first girl
You and her gave me the world

Where is she now?
Nobody knows
Where is she now?
Nobody knows

Do you remember how to play guitar?
You wanted to be a Rock n' Roll Star
Left your little boy for your dreams
Funny, he's now what you wanted to be

Where is he now?
Nobody knows
Where is he now?
Nobody knows
