

Gorchitza Live Project, Highlights

That's my lifelong party
I'm the master of these ruins
Thoughts are runnin' and hidin'
But I've lost even my desire to be
And I look for the highlights
And I think of the highlights
My creator told me some good advice
I didn't catch what he said
And now we all wanna ask him
Why are people so mad?
I stand and look in the mirror
How could I do this with my own hands?
I need a book without any misprint
That tells about the winner
Who's makin' mess
And I look for the highlights
And I think of the highlights
