

Gorchitza Live Project, Kiss Me Loneliness

I had a picture in my mind
Oh I could be your princess
You could be my prince
Together you and I
Oh you and I

You don't know how hard
I tried, oh yes I tried
To make things go right
And now at last when I found out
You never loved me

Nothing left to say
Kiss me, loneliness
Be my happiness
And treat me better
We'll never be the same
Either leave or stay -
It doesn't metter

I felt so good in your arms
Oh I felt so good
Lookin' in your eyes
But you decided to divide
Your heart in two
That's not nice
And now you're made it clear to me
Will I disappooint you if I disappear
In spite of things I leave behind
I let the sun shine
