

Gordon Lightfoot, The No Hotel

Down around the No Hotel, look for me, they know me well.
Travelers come and travelers go down around the Hotel No.
If you choose the No Hotel, be prepared to run pell mell,
Be another burnt out shell, you checked in the No Hotel.

Down around the No Hotel, water there dont flow so well.
Problems come and problems go, freezing shower say hello.
If you choose the No Hotel, the bellhop never rings the bell,
Why theres another neer do well, just checked in the No Hotel.

Down around the No Hotel, look for me, the human shell.
Strangers moving to and fro all around the Hotel No.
When dining at the No Hotel, theres caterers who cater not,
And waiters who dont wait a lot, youve checked in the No Hotel.

Living at the No Hotel, just another neer do well, seasons ebb and seasons flo down around the Hotel Ho.
Snug in your No Hotel room, see the little critters fly
Above the bed sheets telling lies, youve checked in the No Hotel.

Down around the No Hotel, look for me, they know me well.
Travelers come and travelers go, its the only world they know.
If you choose the No Hotel, the bellhop never rings the bell,
Now hes another burnt out shell, youve checked in the No Hotel.
