

Gorilla Biscuits, Cats And Dogs

Man's best friend is beautiful and affectionate, an ideal pet.

Cats are the same, we make up their names and our love for them is real.

Listen up, I gotta ask you, how can we be so cruel?

You say you care, that's a lie.

My true compassion is for all living things and not just the ones who are cute so I do what I can.

I wanna save lives and I've got a plan.

Under the table he'll eat your dinner like the veggies we can't stand.

What kind of meal would he make?

We don't want to ask it.

Tradition is all that keeps him alive.

Listen up, I gotta ask how can we be so cruel?

You say you care, that's a lie.

My true compassion is for all living things and not just the ones who are cute so I do what I can.

I wanna save lives and I've got a plan.

Why am I so upset.

Don't even own a pet.

I am not trying to press my will.

I am not the first to say...

THOU SHALT NOT KILL

Full is all you want to feel.

We eat to stay alive, but it's their lives we steal.

I think we'd like to change,

but most of us are stuck, that's why cats and dogs have

ALL THE LUCK
