

Gorillaz, Hallelujah Money (feat. Benjamin Cleme

Here is our tree
That primitively grows
And when you go to bad
Scarecrows from the Far East come to eat
It's tender fruits
And I thought the best way to protect our tree
Is by building walls
Walls like unicorns
In full glory and galore
And even stronger
Than the Walls of Jericho
But glad then my friends
Out in the field
We shall reap a better day
What we've always dreamt of heaving
Are now for the starving
It is love
That is the root of all evil
But not our tree
And thank you, my friend, for trusting me

Hallelujah
Hallelujah Money
Hallelujah Money
Hallelujah Money
Hallelujah Money

How will we know when the morning comes we're still human?
How will we know?
How will we dream?
How will we love?
How will we know?

Don't worry, my friend
If this be the end
Then so shall it be
Until we say so
Nothing will move
Don't worry
It's not against our morals
It's a legally tender
Touch, my friend
While the whole world and whole beasts of nations desire power!

How will we know when the morning comes we're still human?
How will we know?
How will we dream?
How will we love?
How will we know?

Hallelujah
Hallelujah Money
Hallelujah Money
Hallelujah Money
Hallelujah Money