

Gotthard, All I Care For

Another day before us
And we're ready for the show
Across the land of mystery
Everyone with their own dream
Sometimes harder than they seem

Here I am far away
Hundred miles and oceans from you
Feel the need to cry out loud
I want you to know

Oh, you're all I care for
Oh, you're all I care for
You're all I need

Soon I will be back again
I know, it's hard to love a kind of man
Always on the line
Always out of time
Just one thin I know for sure

Here I am far away
Hundred miles and oceans from you
Feel the need to cry out loud
I want you to know

Oh, you're all I care for
Oh, you're all I care for
Oh, you're all I care for
You're all I need
