

Gotthard, All We Are

i've been locked inside my anxious mind for way too long now people telling me, i need conformity just leave your thoughts behind deaf and blind

now i showed them all i crashed the wall of indecision i'll finish when i'm done, i won't let anyone take control of me now i'm free

all we are, is more than in the mirror all we are, is more than what you see all we are, i what we got together is all we need, cause life belongs to me n' you and things we do right now right now

how 'bout trying to live a life no definition matters how 'bout trying to understand the things you can't step outside the line instead of wasting time

and things we do right now, right now

and things we do right now, right now
