

Gov't Mule, Silent Scream

Hey, what's the use - daily excuse
And what's it all mean to me
Pride pushed aside - thanks for the ride
More is in store, you'll see

Hey, we're all trapped in a silent scream

Life's worth the price - don't you think twice
Just 'cause it's unjust to you
Why not rejoice - what's the other choice
When death, like your dreams, will come soon

Hey, we're all trapped in a silent scream
Hey, we're all trapped in a silent scream

Search for the truth - no one has proof
But faith is all you need to believe

Hey, we're all trapped in a silent scream
Hey, we're all trapped in a silent scream
Hey, we're all trapped in a silent scream
Hey, we're all trapped in a silent scream
