

Gowan, Cyberbabes

Here they come again
All so beautiful
If they wanted to
They could rule the world
And here I'll sit silently fantasizing
Carried on these waves of ecstasy

The Cyberbabes are coming
Cyberbabes are coming
The Cyberbabes are coming
Just for me

I don't want to think
I don't have to know
If it's not for real
I'll just enjoy the show
I can't debate the moral values at the moment
I'm too enraptured by the things I see

The Cyberbabes are coming
Just for me

And everything's so wonderful
Everything's so sensual
So sexual...
Here they come

And here I sit silently fantasizing
Carried on these waves of ecstasy

Just for me
