

GPKISM, Sublimis

Behold ~the stars have faded it's light, the moon is cold as ice~
I'm here~ for you, forever watching you~
I'll soon lose all my light, my tears will all be dry
I'm here ~forever and ever ~
The sky, raining tears of light, enlighten me inside~
my heart is burning bright, my frozen soul will cry
I hold you through the night~a perfect paradise~
ascending to the sky, where we dances in the light~
Hold me in your arms, surround me with your scent
~I feel your heart beating fast~
Kiss me with your lips...enchant me with your smile
I feel my heart melting fast...
