

Grace Gale, I Don't Know How To Put This... But

Make up lines and question marks

Her head is near the doorway

She'll go home

Ripe and ready

This scene is dead

She thinks she's smart

She's nothing but a throw back

She'll go home

Right away

The make up on your pillow

A smear across your face

A tribute to your evening

Everyday's the same

Your looks can't save you now

The green in your eyes

Jealousy is in the future

It's a long fall from the top

The dress you wear is so sincere

Hold on to your pride

I've got a breaking story baby

You're just old news

Go to it

Just stop

Take a clue

Cool off

Dance party massacre

Bang bang

Home town disaster

Bang bang

It's a shame

Where to go from here

The only way is down

Fade in

Cue the lights

Enter from stage right

Lights

Camera

Action

You've dug yourself too deep

Watch it all fall away

Sit back and watch this all unfold

Casting calls are taking place

A lead is needed
