

Grace VanderWaal, 12 Stars

You drifted away, but she wanted to stay.

Even though she knows his feelings will never change. She waits and she waits just to hear her name

(Pre-Chorus)

But deep down she's aware that that's something that'll never reach her ear.

And deep down she's aware that that's something she'll never live to hear.

(Chorus)

So go ahead and kill me as long as he's safe.

And go ahead and shoot me as long as I can see his face when I'm gone.

She sees his face everyday.

And maybe one day he'll say, "I've always felt that way."

But deep down she's aware that that's something she'll never live to hear

And deep down she's aware that those words will never reach her ear

(Chorus)

I forget about you over the weekend. Decided that I'm over it, but the second I see your face again
