

Graham Colton Band, This Time

She will let you win
She'll be waiting around
Then she'll push you in
And watch you drown
I've heard better to go ahead and let her in
I've been here before but I'm not coming round again
How can you turn a blind eye when I'm screaming
I want you to hear me this time
Turn around take a good look now cuz I'm leaving
I want you to hear me, I'll be fine
She will rush you in
Then slowly back out
When you're suffering
She'll push you down
I've heard better to go ahead and let her in
I've been here before but I'm not coming round again
How can you turn a blind eye when I'm screaming
I want you to hear me this time
Turn around take a good look now cuz I'm leaving
I want you to hear me, I'll be fine
You never had time to get away
From reasons why or the things you say
When the moment's not right
You never had time for different ways
You're wondering why you're still the same
As you break down and cry
