Graham Nash, It's All Right

It's All Right (3:12) words & Damp; music by Graham Nash

When I see you beside me, smiling at me, I feel warm deep inside me, 'cause I think I love you. When I feel you surrounding me, making me strong, I've got warm glow around me, Because I think I love you, and it's all right, all right. Needless to say, I feel all right, all right. I'll be here when you awake. Looking down the roadway, tell you what I see, lots of lonely heartaches, lots of feeling blue. Looking up the roadway, tell you what I see. I see you. So it's all right, all right. Needless to say, I feel all right, all right. I'll be here when you awake. Looking down the roadway, tell you what I see, there's lots of lonely heartaches, lots of feeling blue. Looking up the roadway, tell you what I see. I see you, you, you. 'Cause when I see you beside me, smiling at me, I feel warm deep inside me, 'cause I think I love you. Yes I do. And it's all right, all right, needless to say. I feel all right. I'll be here when you awake. And it's all right, all right, needless to say. I feel all right. I'll be here when you awake.
