Graham Nash, Man In The Mirror

On the end of a tightrope I'm over the town I'd be good in a circus But so would a clown From the way that I feel All my hang-ups are down

In the middle of nowhere I found me a tree And the fruit that we live on Reminds me of me Though we live in the air I'm not sure that we're free

And I don't really have much to say 'Cause I'm living from day to day, somewhere And I don't care what the people say 'Cause if everyone knows the way, we're nowhere

Two and two make four
They never make five
And as long as we know it
We all can survive
Make sure that the things you do
Keep us alive

And I don't really have much to say 'Cause I'm living from day to day, somewhere And I don't care what the people say 'Cause if everyone knows the way, we're nowhere

Is the image I'm making The image I see When the man in the mirror Is talking to me
