

Grand Incredible, The Days Are Evil

This isn't worth the price I'm payin' and all the shame I'm carryin' around I feel like the way I'm headed is down
I've been dreamin' about car crashes
I can't stop before I hit the wall
This isn't worth the price I'm payin' at all

(pre chorus)
Sweet for a season
but bitter as hell
I don't think I'm doin's so well

(chorus)
Bitter, bitter bitersweet tempting but it's death to eat
I don't wanna touch it but it's in my clutches
Bitter, bitter bitersweet tempting but it's death to eat
I don't wanna touch it but I'm in it's clutches now and I want out

I wanna hear God say He loves me
It's hard for me to hear that from anyone but when He sends me storms and trials He calls me son Why can't I love completely?
The truth is I let sin get in the way
I want to throw it all away
