

Grand Theft Audio, As Good As It Gets

8am with a coffee kick start
Step outside to my broken down car
I know I've forgotten my pack of cigarettes
The whole day's like a slow train coming
Sometimes I find myself running
Tell me man is this as good as the whole world's gonna get?

I GET THE FEELING IT'S A NEW DAY, SUN IS RISING
I GET THE FEELING EVERYTHING IS GONNA CHANGE

Search the road for some friendly faces
My legs lead me to some strung out places
My mind burns with the words that I forget
I don't seem to be able to lose me
I warm the streets that shake and bruise me
Tell me man is this as good as the whole worlds gonna get?
I get the feeling this was sent to test me
Can I please get someone to bless me
I still forgot those damn cigarettes
Cos I travel in my own illusion
Cut a path through all the confusion
Tell me man is this as good as the whole world's gonna get?

I fall asleep with the TV too loud
Spending time staying in with the out crowd
Dreams come and leave me in cold sweats
Tomorrow feels like a new day coming
I can't see it being all for nothing
And I know it's as good as the whole world's gonna
