

Grandaddy, Aisle Seat 37-D miles high, stalled above the sea aisle seat 37-D the hard guys that are crying quietly and the moms lost in shock will never see me sitting alone wearing headphones smiling slightly as we fall towards the sea and i'm having a glass of red wine trying to find a picture of you while everyone's going insane i feel that i'm staying reasonably calm now the pilot's reciting a prayer but i'm so not there and i really don't care cause the picture of you i couldn't find i finally found

so everything's fine
yeah the picture of you i couldn't find
i finally found
so everything's fine
while faster we fall toward the sea i'm okay cause you're with me here in 37-D
(i'm okay cause you're with me)
(i'm okay cause you're with me)
