

Granddaddy, Cinderland

outdated dreams have kept your friends around I've seen them sad and wet
in cast-off gowns

I don't know
I've been wonderin'
who wrote that rule?
seems a lie and so untidy
and downright cruel

remember cinderland
once was our town?
but since you went away
it's barren ground

I don't know though
I've been wonderin'
where did you go?
seems one-sided, so untidy
and downright cruel
