Grandaddy, Cinderland

outdated dreams have kept your friends around I've seen them sad and wet in cast-off gowns

I don't know I've been wonderin' who wrote that rule? seems a lie and so untidy and downright cruel remember cinderland once was our town? but since you went away it's barren ground

I don't know though I've been wonderin' where did you go? seems one-sided, so untidy and downright cruel
